Flyte Case Huckleberry Finn

Text M.Koschorreck 1984

Who's sitting there painting on his coat ?
who does things nobody knows ?
he's a hero of a comic in a strange science-fiction
that is you

Who's sitting there drawing on the floor ?
who's making warnings for the bathroom door ?
he's a hero of a comic
in a strange science-fiction
that is you

Living with Mr Flyte Case laughin' with Mr. Flyte Case travellin' with Mr. Flyte Case livin' in a box on a roof

Who's made a hat from a salat bowl ?
haven't you seen him when he's on the roll ?
he's a hero of a comic
in a strange science-fiction
that is you

Ref.

He,s a Huckleberry
Huckleberry Finn - livin' in a box on a roof
He,s a Huckleberry
Huckleberry Finn - but he don't need a proof

Who's got the key to his right half brain ?
haven't you seen him laughing in the rain ?
that is you

SEARCHING FOR THE SUN

6/83
SUMMERS,KOSCHORRECK

Searching for the sun,
Your journey's just begun
Looking here and there Searching everywhere

Looking night and day
I'trying for a way
No matter near or far I'm searching for that star

The cosmos daily calling One star born, another falling Questions lost and found
I know what's up, what's down

Look night and day
You'll find your way
Search here and there
You can find it everywhere

The sun shines at midnight
Searching for the golden sun (repeat)
